

ment, and the Bill herewith returned, authorizing thirty days' advertisement, will be subject to referendum until June 1, 1916.

At the time this Bill was introduced, we believed that the shortening of the time for advertising would be advantageous for a quick sale, but, upon investigation, I do not now believe that anything will be gained thereby, preferring the present law requiring sixty days to the Bill hereby vetoed, it being subject to a possible referendum until June 1, 1916.

Respectfully,

(Signed) EMERSON C. HARRINGTON, Governor.
